

WE ARE THERE FOR YOU. And together we can get through this.

FLEX

Dear customers, dear business partners,

We hope you and your families are well.

Times like these in the COVID 19 pandemic have never been there before. This makes it all the more important to stand together now. Acting together responsibly and in partnership.

Most important for us is the health and safety of our employees and customers.

Therefore, we have already taken far-reaching actions to ensure safety while continuing to be there for you. Our employees mainly work from their home office, on-site visits are currently postponed.

We do our best to ensure the availability of our products and services.

And of course we are always available for you:

You can reach your contacts as usual by phone and e-mail, delivery and order processing will continue to be handled in the best possible way.
